

Brenda L. Hill-Riggins is President and co-owner of a MARS Contractors, Inc. Brenda has worked one on one with individuals and with groups addressing issues such as understanding one's purpose, starting over, organizational management, spiritual transformation, and building your business.

With a strong desire to help others understand their purpose and move her clients more quickly to their desired destinations in life, in 2010 Brenda transitioned from what she does (AC contractor) to who she is, a transformation coach. Brenda completed her speaker's training with The Motivational Center with Dr. Tina Dupree. Brenda completed her coach training at Florida International University and received her Life Coach Certification from the North Star Group. Brenda was personally trained by New York Times best-selling author and "O" Magazine monthly contributor, Dr. Martha Beck. Brenda has a passion for helping men and women to live richer, fuller, and more authentic lives and is committed to that process of discovery with her clients. Brenda promises to create a coaching partnership that is warm, focused, honest and fun!

"The coach cares about his /her clients, their agendas, their health and growth, but not the road they take to get there, the speed of travel or the detours they might make along the way... as long as they continue to move towards the results they want. Ultimately, coaching is not about what the coach delivers, but about what the clients create. "

Who I am

- As a surrogate I am the substance that allows the animating force of God's activation and manifestation in your life.

What I do

- if you have a vision for your life and understand you are spiritually infertile as a surrogate I will become pregnant in the womb of my heart with/for you and give or assist you in giving birth to your vision.

Why I do -what I do

- To help others who lack Faith understand faith and God's will for their life ... while/as they work/fulfill their purpose. Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see...now if we can not see the desire then how can the desire ever be manifested? thus creating a need for a surrogate. A surrogate...

How I do, what I desire to do

- According to the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, a surrogate is an "artificial or synthetic product that is used as a substitute for a natural product." It's a good definition for me as a surrogate visionary to use to explain spiritual manifestations. A surrogate visionary (Brenda) is an artificial or synthetic visionary that is used as a substitute for a natural visionary (Vanessa). Actually, a surrogate visionary (Brenda) in a spiritual manifestation is more than just a substitute for a natural visionary (Vanessa). In a spiritual manifestation, a surrogate visionary (Brenda) is a necessary generalization –a very close likeness to the natural Created Visionary (Vanessa) and is one of the basic elements of spiritual manifestation design. Let me explain: Every join between dimension levels (4 dimension of our very own nature-you, mind, body, and spirit) and fact levels in a spiritual manifestation environment should be based on a surrogate visionary. Surrogate Visionary one who is marked by vision and foresight. One given to speculative 1 to meditate on....to reflect 2.to engage in risky business ventures that offer the chance of large profits. , often impractical ideas, a Seer, Prophet. One who have unusual foresight), not as with a natural visionary who has only a mental image produced by the imagination. Understand that a surrogate can extract data logic and systematically look up and replace every incoming idea from the natural visionary with a spiritual equivalent each time either a dimension record (information gathered from the natural visionary regarding the vision or idea) or a fact record (information about the natural visionary's abilities, strength and weaknesses) is brought into the spiritual manifestation environment. There are still more reasons to use surrogate visionaries. One of the most important is the need to decode uncertain knowledge.

If you think carefully about the "I don't know" situations, you may realize that with the right or that one special surrogate visionary for the natural visionary only one is necessary. Many situations call for a spiritual manifestation through a surrogate visionary. Don't forget that in the spiritual manifestation schema the visionary must be fertile. A non- fertile visionary automatically turns on the (let's re-examine, re-affirm, re-do-, re-think mode) centered around integrity alarm. The "I don't know" situation occurs quite frequently for years.

Holding on to real vision values (the desire to accomplish via monetary or material worth) as visionaries is also a strategic blunder... not giving birth in just time cause death to the visionary and the vision. Yes, you can navigate through time with just a visionary, thereby avoiding the join with a true surrogate, but you have left most of your opportunity marooned on the natural dimension level. As mentioned a true a fertile visionary is one who is marked by vision and foresight. One given to speculative, often impractical ideas a Seer, prophet. One who have unusual foresight.

The final reason I can think of for surrogate visionaries is one that I strongly suspect but have never proven. Replacing unproductive, reactive natural visionaries with productive,
